Metro Theatre presents THE GRADUATE May 2nd to May 23rd

Count on being seduced by Metro's seventh show of its 52nd season. This coming-of-age tale unfolds a nostalgic rendition of the 1960's social taboo of an older woman seducing a much younger man. Cheers to you Mrs. Robinson!

(April 21, 2015) Terry Johnson's adaptation of the iconic 1967 movie chronicles the adventures of Benjamin Braddock, a newly minted college grad grappling with his future. Back at his parents' house, Ben is trying to avoid the one question everyone keeps asking: What does he want to do with his life? An unexpected diversion crops up when he is seduced by Mrs. Robinson, a bored housewife and friend of his parents. But what begins as a fun tryst, turns complicated when Ben falls for the one woman Mrs. Robinson demanded he stay away from – her daughter, Elaine.

After 15 years and close to 30 plays, Judi Price chose to direct The Graduate as her final production. Several of the cast members worked with Judi at the beginning of their own acting careers and are delighted to bring Judi's sense of playfulness and sizzle to the stage in this, her final directed play. "The Graduate is an exploration of upper middle-class youth rejecting their parents' materialist values (while enjoying the trappings) and older women who should really know better. It is funny and has the best lines!"

The Graduate is directed by Judi Price, produced by Heather Stewart, stage managed by Anthony Stonechild, and features: Edwin Perez as Benjamin Braddock and Kathryn Stewart as Mrs. Robinson. ABOUT METRO THEATRE

Metro Theatre (the Metropolitan Cooperative Theatre Society) is a registered non-profit cooperative society, and is fueled by volunteers. Its mission is to promote and develop theatre arts on a non-professional level.

Metro Theatre was created in 1962, and has produced 490 shows, including nearly 50 musicals, over the past 52 years. Sometimes referred to as the “humble little theatre”, Metro ironically has 307 seats and puts on seven shows a year, more than all other non-professional theatre companies in North America and many professional ones.

Metro Theatre is wheelchair-accessible and provides assisted-listening devices upon request. It offers season subscriptions as well as individual reservations online and at the door.

Metro Theatre is located at 1370 SW Marine Drive, at the base of the Arthur Lang Bridge in Vancouver. It's accessible by transit, and has free and paid parking nearby.
