Help Us Carry On a Tradition of More Than 50 Years

Looking forward to its 52nd Season and almost 500 productions, Metro has had the mission of encouraging involvement in the performing arts on a non-professional level. This stage has been the introduction or a stepping stone to the world of theatre for countless actors, technicians and production personnel many of whom have left our stage and gone on to a successful professional career in the arts. We are rightly proud of our accomplishments. For many others Metro has been the center for a release of creative energy and the satisfaction of a job well done and has contributed to the entertainment of the public. We are rightly proud of our accomplishments.

The Metro Theatre VIP Membership Campaign is free for Season Subscribers and enrollment has been a requirement for all of our cast and crew for every show over the years. This campaign has the mission of making VIP Membership more visible and recognized as a vital link in the sustainability of Metro Theatre. It is a VIP Members that donate over $125,000 of their time to keep Metro working

Metro Theatre Benefits from more involvement by our members. It is our hope that our VIP Members will enjoy the many benefits of being involved in Metro's Tradition.

Be Part of a Tradition

For 52 years Metro Theatre Has relied on its non-professional active membership to produce a high quality season of plays.

Be Part of a Team

Our Members and volunteers are the foundation of 52 years and almost 500 productions. They are the actors, directors, designers, technicians, and stagehands of every production you see. They are also the Front of House, Concession, ushers, and Box Office people that greet the public at our doors.

Be Part of Metro's Success

Your Voice counts. Take part in guiding Metro into the future by attending the AGM, consider running for a position on Metro's Board of Directors
