ROUND AND ROUND THE GARDEN by Alan Ayckbourn

OCT 1 - OCT 16

Hilarious British comedy involving a family (one brother 2 sisters) and their respective neighbours, spouses etc. The antics and misunderstandings are fast and furious over a weekend in summer, in a large, slightly over-grown garden. Annie, is the long-suffering daughter saddled with caring for a demanding mother (whom we mercifully never see). She plans a get-away (for "a dirty weekend") with her brother-in-law, Norman. A plan doomed from the start, she reconsiders at the last minute. Norman then "spreads his net" wider to include Annie's sister-in-law. It all becomes more complicated as they chase round and round the garden.

SHIRLEY VALENTINE by Willy Russell

JAN 14 - 29 / Matinees JAN 15, 22, & 29

This is the story of a Liverpool housewife who spends her days talking to the wall – literally! When her best friend asks her to go to Greece with her for 2 weeks she jumps at the chance. In Greece she rediscovers the woman she used to be and the happiness that has been missing. An affair with a local, helps Shirley realize there is more to life and that change is always possible. Shirley shares her thoughts and doubts with us, the audience, in this one-woman tour-de-force.

SYLVIA by A.R. Gurney

APR 15 - 30 / Matinees APR 16, 23, & 30

Greg brings home a stray dog with a collar inscribed with the word "Sylvia". Having lived on the streets for a while Sylvia is very grateful for a warm, loving, home. We are privy to Sylvia's thoughts and feelings as this role is played by Kate, who vocalizes what the dog thinks and feels. The intrusion of a dog into the apartment is not welcomed by the wife who is looking for fewer ties and responsibilities. Funny and touching; this play is for anyone who has ever discovered that a pet can become a family member oh, so quickly. They worm their way into our hearts!

THE IMPORTANCE OF BEING EARNEST by Oscar Wilde

NOV 5 - 20 / Matinees NOV 2, 9, & 16

This classic Edwardian comedy of manners, is a fan-favorite which is no surprise. Gorgeous period costumes, and witty dialogue, make this a joy to view and hear. Gwendolyn and Cecily are both in love with "Earnest" who is a figment from the imagination of their young Gentlemen, John and Algernon. Both young men have invented this alternate ego for their own purposes. When the women declare that they are engaged to "Earnest" and intend to both marry him, it becomes abundantly clear that both gentlemen must have this name! In fact it is of the upmost importance to be "Earnest"!

WAIT UNTIL DARK by Frederick Knott

FEB 18 - MAR 5 / Matinees FEB 19, 26, & MAR 5

A psychotic con-man and 2 x-convicts attempt to terrorize a young woman who is visually impaired. By a cleverly constructed deception they try to convince her that her husband, Sam, is involved in murder. Sam has inadvertently brought home a doll stuffed with heroin. The 3 try to "plant" it. Not knowing who she can trust Suzy has to rely on only the help of a young girl in her apartment building, and her own courage and wits to protect herself. Audie's debut in the film version of this tense thriller. Don't miss it!
